CHICAGO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

NASHVILLE STAKES.

The Tennessee Breeders' Association has announced its program for the nine days' spring race meeting, beginning at Cumberland Park April 24 next. The stakes opened December 21 and are to close January 25. Following are the fixtures announced:

Cumberland Derby, for three-year-olds, $2,000 added; 1-1/8 miles.

Carter Memorial Selling, for three-year-olds and upward, $800 added; 1 mile and 20 yards.

Belle Meade Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, $800 added; 1-2 mile.

Avondale Stakes, for two-year-olds, $800 added; 4 1/2 furlongs.

Gerst Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $800 added; 7-8 mile.

E. TROTTER SUSPENDED.

NEW ORLEANS, La., December 23.—E. Trotter, trainer, was suspended today pending investigation of the running of the horse, The Rush, at this meeting. And Jockey Otis was suspended for the remainder of the meeting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dr. H. E. Rowell has two fillies at Oakland which will become members of the two-year-old brigade on January 1. They have shown quarters in 241, and are being booked by the California railbirds as good things. One is by Magnet, out of I Declare, and the other by Figaro, out of Flossie.

Much surprise is being expressed out on the coast at the many poor mounts that Jockey Spencer accepts. It seems peculiar that a boy of his reputation and known ability should not get better horses to ride.

J. W. Dayton, an American jockey, has arrived in London and applied to Messrs. Weatherby, the clerks of the Jockey Club, for a license to ride.

Dunlop, the stallion Ed Corrigan imported from England, dropped dead last week at his ranch near Sacramento. Dunlop cost the former master of Hawthorne $8,000.

Frank Phillips, the well known trainer and horseman is ill in San Francisco with threatened appendicitis.

"Pat" Dunne intends to remain in California but six weeks. He may pick up a horse or two before returning east.

Papinta has sent out instructions to dispose of about a dozen of her thoroughbreds at auction.

"Long Shot" Conley is expected to ride at Oakland this week.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Victor Porter, the steeplechase jockey, will not ride at New Orleans this winter, through the intervention of the courts. His injunction suit against the Crescent City Jockey Club and its officials praying that they be restrained from interfering with him in his vocation has been dismissed by Judge Summerville. His suit for damages against Manager Eush, Secretary Clark and Presiding Steward Rees will come up for trial next Friday.

The San Francisco Examiner of December 17 has this to say of Water Cure: "Water Cure is undoubtedly the best horse now being trained in California. Yesterday he won the three-cornered race at six and a half furlongs against Vesuvian and The Pride in a big canter, and after receiving a wretched ride at the hands of O'Connor. He was in a corner practically from start to finish. Perhaps the jockey thought The Pride and Vesuvian would turn wide into the stretch and let him through, but they didn't, and at the paddock Water Cure was almost jumping on Vesuvian's heels, with The Pride pinning him in on the rail. O'Connor was forced to pull up short and come on the outside of them both. Of course the horse had enough left to enable him to do it easily, but that very fact should have shown O'Connor that he need take no chances of being out off or interfered with. Water Cure is not a sprinter; that is, he never was regarded as one around New York. He has demonstrated his ability to go a long route. With his speed, courage and class, if he stays good, he should hold the Burns Handicap safe against anything that has shown here. That is probably the reason that a rumor got into circulation at the track yesterday that Burns & Waterhouse had offered Green B. Morris $15,000 for him. Colonel Burns denied that this was true last night, and also stated that his firm had not contemplated any such purchase."

Ed Corrigan arrived at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, last Monday night and held a levee in the corridor. He has secured another English horse to add to his Sacramento breeding farm. The newcomer is Dunlop, by Ayrshire. He was a promising two-year-old in his day. Bessed, the California mare taken to England, did not stand up in her training and is now en route to Sacramento. While in England she was bred to Encounter, by Isonomy. Corrigan says he has twenty-five horses in training in England and he will sell the yearlings and two-year-olds at his Sacramento farm at Chicago early this spring. He will never again ship any horse from here to England as the journey is too severe. Corrigan sold Geyser to Wishard, who has shipped the son of Ben Ali back to America. Corrigan will return east in a day or two and will leave for England early in the spring.

A story is current in New Orleans that Tod Sloan, the former jockey, is married and his bride is a French girl. Cash Sloan, his brother, who is there, was seen and said that he knew about his brother's matrimonial venture only from what he had heard. He also said that he met Tod in Paris six weeks ago and that he had nothing then to say about his marriage. Jed and William Waldo, the two young jockeys who rode for Ed Corrigan in England, have arrived at New Orleans and will ride during the meeting. Tiny Williams, the negro jockey, has also arrived.

The correspondent of the New York Sun, writing from New Orleans under date of December 19, says: "A scandal that will probably equal the 'Isen case' of last winter, when a number of owners and jockeys were ruled off the turf for life, is brewing. Ever since the steeplechase race of last Friday there have been all kinds of stories afloat concerning the race, and judging by the efforts of Divertissement yesterday the stories have in part been substantiated. According to talk that began immediately after the race last Friday, jockeys that were to ride in the race met in a sporting resort on Thursday night and decided to bet on, or at least to have some one to bet on, the horse that they would select to win. Divertissement was the one selected and cipher messages were sent away to a number of cities where turf exchanges are operated. It is said that those in on the deal had some one else to sign the message so as to leave them out in case anything came up. The amount won by the jockeys and the party that put up the money is said to be in the neighborhood of $40,000. The out-of-town poolrooms were hard hit, while two in Providence were practically put out of business. It may be said

Time, 2:41, 4:41, 1:15.

Winner—B. g. by Fitzjames—Springlike. Went to post at 2:14. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Autumn Time was best. He showed speed, won under restraint and received a confident looking ride throughout. Knockings showed fine speed and stuck to his work gamely. Dwight Way came again strongly right at the end after falling back apparently beaten. Rosarie went moderately well. Bassenzo ran poorly. Schwarzwald was practically left through a collision at the start in which Herald's jockey was brushed off.

Autumn Time, show, 1 to 3. Knockings, show, 3 to 1. Dwight Way, show, 7 to 1.

29898 SECOND RACE—Futurity Course. (170 feet less than 3-4 mile.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 1:11.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—La Plata. Went to post at 2:43. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Huachuca was cleverly handled, saved ground next to the rail and fought out the finish gamely. Jarretiere d'Or, a long striding and awkward colt, was carefully handled by Spencer with better results than his recent races. He trailed the field on the outside and closed up with a tremendous rush at the end. Ishtar is undersized, but displayed fine speed and probably failed at the end because of the big weight. Ester Nell quit badly in the stretch.

Huachuca, show, out. Jarretiere d'Or, show, 3 to 5. Ishtar, show, out.

29899 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 2:51, 4:41, 1:15, 1:41.

Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot—Gratitude. Went to post at 3:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. First Shot is much improved, showed plenty of speed to hold his position and finished fast under a perfect ride. Pat Morrissey set a sharp pace and appeared to be almost a certain winner throughout and stuck to his work well. Dr. Bernays was pocketed in the first half; but failed to gain when clear in the stretch. Plead went well for a first appearance here. El Fonce was going easily for the first half, had no mishaps and is only of moderate caliber evidently. Grand Sachem was badly bumped on the far turn.

Scratched—29759 Mission, 109; 29795 Canejo, 109; 29873 Nilgar, 109; 29885 Courtier, 100.

Overweights—El Fonce, 2 1/2 pounds.

First Shot, show, 8 to 5. Pat Morrissey, show, 3 to 5. Dr. Bernays, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 2:21, 4:41, 1:12, 1:20.

*Omitted from entries. Winner—Ch. g. by Take Notice—Happy Maiden. Went to post at 3:31. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Rollock was well up throughout and came away easily at the end under a strong ride. Herculean's recent long races have slightly dulled his speed but he ran a fine race and finished strongly. Maresa is in good form for her, set a tremendous pace and should win soon. Cougar, off badly, closed a tremendous gap and might have been best. David S. was carried wide on the first turn and received a bad looking ride. Gibraltar cannot beat this kind in his present form but was prominent for six furlongs.

Scratched—29830 Our Lizzie, 114; 29833 Merops, 109; 29831 Wyoming, 109; 29762 Goal Runner, 106.

Overweights—Racetto, 1 1/2 pounds.

Rollock, show, 1 to 2. Herculean, show, evens. Maresa, show, 6 to 5. David S., show, 1 to 2.

CHARLESTON FORM.

CHARLESTON, S. C., December 23.—The form of Tuesday's Charleston fields is:

First Race—Little Tower, Oricins, Mollie Brooks.

Second Race—Latch String, Me, Deadly Night Shade.

Third Race—Sam Lazarus Esq., Dominis, Lizzie Tello.

(29882) HEADWATER 5 105 Bolted at start. Buchanan H L Jones & Co 7-5 2 1/2 4-5 Time, 1:24, 24, 48, 1:13, 1:26.
Winner—Br. c. by Sir Dixon—Merdin.
Went to post at 4:02. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Mercer, after trailina under a pull, went to the front in the stretch with great ease and was much the best. El Rio Shannon displayed much speed, but was tiring badly at the end. Janice was pocketed and bumped at the end and was easily second best. She is very good and apparently freshened up and finished like a whirlwind. Varro moved up fast on the far turn, but failed in the stretch. Impromptu looks badly and was unable to carry his speed far.
Scratched—(29773) Royal Flush, 110.
Overweights—Janice, 2 pounds.
Mercer, show, 2 to 5. El Rio Shannon, show, 4 to 5. Janice, show, 3 to 5. Headwater, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Piccolo—Rillito.
Went to post at 4:26. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Jim Hale had the field beaten early. He is a tremendously fast horse and had the others driving behind him from the start and was much the best. Horton closed up very fast, but was bearing out all through the stretch. Greyfeld, bandaged in front and with both feet ailing, found the hard track against him and will be seen to advantage only on soft going. Plohn went well throughout, but Burns failed to get the best results of him at the finish. Duckoy was unable to stay on the hard track, but showed brilliant speed and will be a great horse in mud. Goldone was onrunt throughout.
Jim Hale, show, 3 to 2. Horton, show, 4 to 5. Greyfeld, show, out.

4 to 12 to 12d Race. Plunge the Limit

Will be our advice on this extra special good thing. Here is one that has worked fast enough to beat anybody's horse, handicap division not barred. The easy manner in which this good thing will win will surprise the bookmakers and public alike.

3 to 1 Extra Special Fourth Race.

We want all our patrons, old and new, to increase their wagers on the above three good things

AT NEW ORLEANS TUESDAY.

Never Miss Our Specials at Oakland

We give but a few a day. They are real good things and you can positively win on them. You can rely on this as a positively truthful statement. We have three specials at Oakland Tuesday, second, fourth and sixth races. The good thing in the sixth race should be 8 to 1. The other two should be as good as 2 to 1. Remember we do not give every winner that wins but we do give more long shot winners than any turf bureau in existence. Try our Form Letter Handicap on all races. It will convince you that we are absolutely reliable.

Christmas 15 to 1 or Better. This is a trick no client should miss. Get this one and you can play on the bookmakers money the rest of the week. Also sold at Kolman's cigar store, 267 Dearborn St., and at cigar stand Adams Express Building, 185 Dearborn St., and at newstand northeast corner Van Buren and Dearborn Sts.

Went to post at 2:00. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. Hutch Miller caught John G. Ford tiring in the last furlong, finished fast and was going away at the end. John G. Ford showed the most early speed but tired and quit when the real issue came. Socapa closed a big gap and was wearing down the leaders in the run home. Lowell was out off on the backstretch and Gormley had to pull him up. Mr. Rose was practically left at the post.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Cadet ran to his best form and came away without much of an effort in the last furlong. Crescent City ran well and hung on more gamely than usual. Those back of him, however, were of poor caliber. Postillion had to go all around his field at the far turn to get up and saved ground when swinging into the homestretch. Meme Wastell was taken the longest route.

Went to post at 3:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Dagmar fenced and ran well, caught Falella tiring in the run home, saved ground at the turn into the flat and got up in the last few strides. Falella put up a good performance, but was swerving toward the outside in the last fifty yards. It was a bad ride on Golden Link. Weber allowed himself to get out off at the far turn and at the finish kept his mount right in behind the winner next to the inside fence. Corrillo was tiring at the end.

Time, 26:53, 1:13.
Winner—Gr. g, by Tom Nichols, dam unknown.
Went to post at 3:03. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. B. O. Reed showed a lot of speed and raced Donna Bella into submission in the first half. He had to do his best at the end. Give and Take was almost thrown over the fence by Sadie Southwell. The latter was prominent in all breakaways and ran her race at the post. Nelson ran a good race under bad handling.
Overweights—Agnes Clair, 2 pounds.
B. O. Reed, show, 1 to 2. Donna Bella, show, out. Give and Take, show, 1 to 3.

29905 THIRD RACE—5-1-2 Furlongs. Purse $200. All Ages. Allowances.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

that so far as known not one of the owners was in on the deal, and it was strictly a 'jockey's feast.' The stewards have not as yet taken any action in the matter, but it is expected that they will."

William C. Whitney's sending Nasturtium away to England to try for the Derby and such other races as the great Watercress colt is eligible for is an act which does not appeal to the popular fancy any more than did Mr. Keene's dispatching Conroy over to try for the Ascot Cup, etc. Nasturtium on public form appears to be the great coming three-year-old, as Conroy on form bids fair to be a four-year-old of the very highest quality. The American turf accordingly has lost two of its finest specimens of horseflesh. Mr. Whitney, as president of the new Saratoga Racing Association, is as much pledged to do all he can to help along the game in this country as is Mr. Keene in his quality of vice-chairman of the Jockey Club. It is not enough to talk of the credit which will redound to the American turf in the event of a Nasturtium victory in the Derby or a Conroy triumph in the Ascot Cup. Americans would rather have American horses like Nasturtium and Conroy remain in this country and win great races here. We can worry along without British turf honors.—New York Sun.

Captain James B. Clay, of Lexington, Ky., has sold to P. J. Dwyer a weanling colt by Handspring—Mon Droit. This youngster is a full brother to a yearling sold last spring to Mr. Dwyer for $8,000, and is also a brother to the good colt Major Daingerfield. The price is thought to be upward of $5,000.

Lester and Johnny Reiff, two noted jockeys, arrived at San Jose December 20, and went at once to their country place on Homestead road, where they will spend several weeks with their parents in well-earned quiet after their active and somewhat turbulent season on the turf. Lester is somewhat disgusted with his experience this year in England, and announces his intention of quitting the turf. Johnny will remain at his home until February, when he will go to France to take part in spring races. He is now only sixteen years old, and has ridden four seasons.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 3:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
